THE HOUSEKEEPER

Written by James Prideaux

By arrangement with Hal Leonard on behalf of Dramatists Play Service, Inc., New York

Directed by Geoff Hickey

7th to 22rd July 2017

The Housekeeper is an offbeat, delightfully zany comedy which deals with the unlikely relationship that develops between a middle-aged, rather stuffy bachelor and the eccentric bag lady he hires as his housekeeper.

Manley is a self-styled literary artist who engages housekeeper Annie to look after his large Victorian house – and himself. When Annie arrives wearing sneakers and carrying her belongings in a grocery cart, we quickly learn that she is an oddball – she insults her employer, admitting she forged her references and accuses Manley of lusting after her.

When Manley finally loses his temper and attempts to chase Annie away, he trips and falls into her arms – and the rest is history!
